FOREWORD

I am pleased to present our Professional Learning Opportunities Booklet.

In today's rapidly evolving educational landscape, professional learning and development opportunities are key to continuous improvement. This booklet has been designed to provide you with a guide to some of the opportunities available to you through the EA Education Directorate. This is a dynamic booklet, designed to be responsive to the needs of schools and will continue to be updated as new opportunities or needs arise.

Our professional learning opportunities are in a range of areas, span across a continuum from Early Career Teachers to System Leaders and are based around five core priorities for the year ahead. By participating in these programmes, we hope that you will not only gain valuable skills and knowledge but also become part of a community of learners and professionals engaging in professional dialogue and committed to excellence across our system.

In addition to the opportunities outlined in this booklet we will continue to support schools in a variety of different ways through more targeted and tailored support including through the support of a School Improvement Professional Partner linked to your school, by supporting Area Learning Communities and engaging and growing existing professional networks such as Pathways into Partnership and Shared Education partnerships.

In addition, there will be a range of ways for you to work in partnership with us and other Educational partners in shaping and co-designing aspects of our system as we move forward. For example, through the EA Northern Ireland Leadership Forum, Locality Leadership Networks, through planned discussions at area level on developing sustainable pathways for children across schools, or specific reference groups focussed on particular programmes such as the various strands in the EdIS programme.

I encourage you to explore the learning opportunities relevant to you and your staff and take full advantage of the opportunities presented.

C. cure

Interim Director of Education
Education Authority

INTRODUCTION

As the Education Directorate in the Education Authority, it is our purpose to make a positive difference in the lives of young people by enabling and empowering school communities to provide high quality, impactful learning experiences and opportunities which inspire, support, and challenge all children and young people to be happy, successful and equipped for life and work.

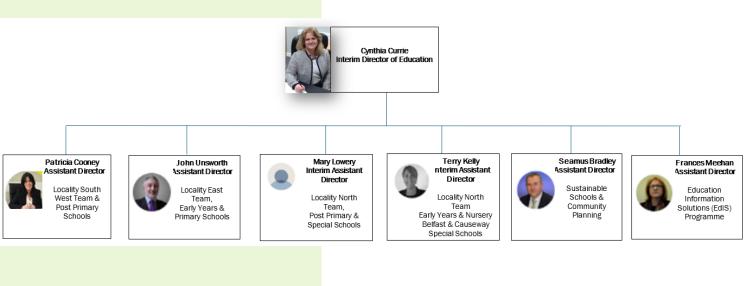

The Education Authority has a key role in supporting all schools across Northern Ireland. In addition to our universal offer of support to all schools we are the managing authority for Controlled Schools and some of our services across the Education Authority and the Education Directorate are tailored to provide additional bespoke and targeted services for Controlled Schools.

The underpinning principles of the Education Directorate are:

In the Education Directorate we have a range of services. Below are the key leads across services who you can engage with are listed below. In particular you will note that there are key personnel connected with your locality.

Through our engagement and feedback from schools we have shaped our key objectives and professional learning offer for the year ahead 2024-25.

This year as an Education Directorate we are focusing on the following core priorities:

Core Priority One

Equipping and empowering effective school leadership.

Core Priority Two

Promoting high quality teaching, learning and support.

Core Priority Three

Cultivating and growing Collaborative Partnerships and networks.

Core Priority Four

Promoting an inclusive ethos and practices for children with additional needs/ barriers to learning.

Core Priority FIVE

Developing, enhancing and embedding digital and data approaches.

Across the Education Directorate we will meet these objectives by:

A key thread through all of our objectives is the professional development of staff across schools. The Department of Education's Learning Leaders - A Strategy for Teacher Professional Learning seeks to ensure that a coherent system of career-long Teacher Professional Learning is in place to support teachers to lead self and school improvement, and most importantly to meet the complex and changing needs of pupils.

The Education Authority has a responsibility to support teachers and school leaders to develop professional competence and capacity, leading to improved outcomes for all children and young people.

The Education Directorate Programme of Offer provides a continuum of professional learning opportunities from early career teacher to system leader. The concept of the continuum allows professionals to develop at a pace relevant and appropriate to their needs while taking cognisance of both the challenges and opportunities they face in different contexts.

This booklet is specifically the Education Directorate professional learning opportunities offer however we continue to connect with colleagues across the education Authority to ensure a wider coherent range of professional learning opportunities are available. If you click on Training | SEND Plan (eani.org.uk) you will find the Children & Young Peoples offer, Organisational Development & Learning Service offer EALearn.

Below are the planned professional learning opportunities for 2024-25. You will find more information about each of these by clicking on the link and it will take you to the appropriate page in this booklet.

Please note there may be further opportunities for targeted and tailored work with schools as needs arise throughout the year.

EMAIL: sds@eani.org.uk

AIMS

To build capacity of middle leaders to lead school improvement, in order to develop high quality learning experiences and improve outcomes for pupils.

STRUCTURE / CONTENT

This programme consists of 3 x  $\frac{1}{2}$  day face-to-face sessions facilitated by officers in the Post-primary and Special School Improvement Team. It supports middle leaders to make a positive difference to learners by enhancing their leadership capacity. Sessions provide opportunities for participants to engage in high quality professional dialogue with peers and apply what they learn to their leadership practice. Sessions will focus on the following key questions:

Session 1

- What is my role and responsibility as a middle leader?
- How do I develop a compelling vision that motivates others?
- What does my leadership feel like to those I lead?
- How do I know how good we are as a team?

Session 2

- How do I create a culture which fosters improvement within my team?
- How do I know what works?
- How do I plan effectively for improvement?

Session 3

- How do I build an effective team?
- How do I manage resistance to change?
- How do I secure accountability?

These sessions are intended as a starting point for participants to consider exploring and developing one or more of the above themes in more detail, which they may wish to pursue with their designated School Improvement Professional.

Participants will attend all sessions and will be supported to engage in inquiry-based practice between sessions.

AIMS

Participants will deepen their understanding of school development planning as a process, underpinned by the school's strong guiding vision and purpose, informed by rigorous self-evaluation and educational research, devised in consultation with stakeholders and in compliance with DE policy.

STRUCTURE / CONTENT

Participants will attend 2 x  $\frac{1}{2}$  day face-to-face workshops facilitated by school improvement officers, in which they will be invited to explore themes relevant to self-evaluation and planning for improvement, considering how they can be applied in the context of their school. The core themes covered in the workshops are designed around a series of questions as follows:

- 1. Rationale asks why do we need a school development plan and what needs to be in one?
- 2. Self-evaluation asks how do we develop a robust evidence-base of all aspects of school life, upon which to build a manageable, meaningful school development plan which positively impacts on our pupils and their outcomes?
- 3. Prioritisation asks what are the challenges and opportunities we face and what are our emerging priorities over the next 3 years?
- 4. Action planning asks what are the characteristics of effective action-planning for improvement?

Each workshop will provide opportunities for professional dialogue and the sharing of practice, approaches and resources that can be used by schools to enhance their existing self-evaluation and improvement planning processes and structures.

These sessions are intended as a starting point for participants to consider exploring and developing one or more of the above themes in more detail, which they may wish to pursue with their designated School Improvement Professional.

Participants will attend both sessions and take their thinking back to share with colleagues in their schools.

AIMS

To support the development of learning & teaching through a shared process of structured inquiry and professional reflection.

STRUCTURE / CONTENT

The programme will provide a facilitated opportunity to collaborate, learn and network with colleagues across the system. This approach is guided by Learning Leaders (2016) putting teachers at the heart of their own professional learning journey. All teachers will be supported to identify their own inquiry question for professional development. The programme will consist of four half day workshops, with the first one aimed at leaders of learning and teaching in addition to teachers:

- Session 1 'What does effective learning and teaching look like?' What does the research tell us are "best bets"?
- Session 2 'Exploring a cycle of inquiry to develop your classroom practice.'
- Session 3 'Building, engaging with and contributing to professional learning communities' including the development of subject networks.
- Session 4 'Know thy impact.' Evaluating the Impact of Teacher Professional Learning on student learning

Each session will be supported by featured modules / inputs from practitioners.

These sessions are intended as a starting point for participants to consider exploring and developing one or more of the above themes in more detail, which they may wish to pursue with their designated School Improvement Professional.

Participants will attend all sessions and will be supported to engage in inquiry-based practice between sessions.

Senior Teachers with responsibility for leading learning and teaching will commit to supporting this developmental work, including attending the sessions and facilitating inquiry as a methodology for improving classroom practice.

AIMS

To build capacity of senior and aspiring senior leaders to make a positive difference to learners in their school. The programme will seek to develop participants' knowledge and understanding in relation to the structures, systems and processes that lead to school improvement. It provides participants with an opportunity to develop their leadership attitudes, behaviours and skills which empower them to build effective teams and lead impactful change in the context of their organisation. As the programme is offered through the area learning community network, it also strengthens connections and collaboration between schools, which sustain ongoing improvement beyond the duration of the programme.

STRUCTURE / CONTENT

The programme consists of eight face-to-face sessions with an emphasis on high quality professional dialogue and learning in context. Sessions explore the following topics:

- Planning for improvement
- Developing a vision for improvement
- Improving Self
- Improving Others
- Improving learning
- Improving teaching
- Securing accountability for improvement

An online information session for aspiring participants and their principals will be scheduled for September 2024, which will provide further details on the content of the programme.

Each participant will also receive 1:1 mentoring from a member of the School Improvement Team to support them in their school improvement work throughout the first year.

EPD is the third stage of teacher education, designed to build upon Initial Teacher Education and Induction and is an essential part of professional learning in which all teachers are required to participate. All teachers who have completed Induction are required to register with the EA to access professional learning in support of EPD.

STRUCTURE / CONTENT

The EPD TPL programme will provide opportunities to engage in professional learning that will:

- introduce ECTs to the teaching profession in Northern Ireland, including its unique characteristics and challenges.
- provide opportunities for ECTs to explore their values, aims and visions for themselves as teachers.
- empower ECTs to navigate their professional journey effectively, starting from a strong foundation of reflective practice.
- familiarise ECTs with essential resources to support their Early Professional Development and the support systems available to them.

TPL will take place through face to face, online and self-led learning opportunities.

AIMS

In March 2022, legislation came into effect stating that cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) and Automated External Defibrillator (AED) must be included in the minimum statutory content in Learning for Life and Work at Key Stage 3. CCEA has partnered with the Northern Ireland Ambulance Service (NIAS), the Department of Education (DE) and the Education Authority to create the Community of Lifesavers Education Programme to support schools in meeting this requirement.

STRUCTURE / CONTENT

As part of the Community of Lifesavers Education Programme, two teachers from every Post Primary setting are invited to attend face to face TPL which will focus on the practical and essential CPR and AED lifesaving skills.

The programme will provide opportunities to engage in professional learning that will:

- Develop knowledge and understanding of CPR and the use of AEDs
- Develop knowledge and awareness of how to integrate this learning into the school curriculum.
